

China Gold International Resources Corp. Ltd. Joins the Hang Seng Composite Index

VANCOUVER, February 22, 2022 - China Gold International Resources Corp. Ltd. (TSX: CGG; HKEx: 2099) (“China Gold International Resources” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has been selected as a constituent of the Hang Seng Composite Index (HSCI) with effect from March 7, 2022.

The Hang Seng Indexes Company Limited made the above announcement on February 18, 2022 following its review of the Hang Seng Family of Indexes for the fourth quarter of 2021.

Launched in 2001, the HSCI covers 95% of the total market capitalization of securities listed on the main board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. It is one of the major stock indexes in the Hong Kong capital market. The HSCI adopts the free-float-adjusted market capitalization methodology and is based on index funds, mutual funds as well as performance benchmarks. Constituents for HSCI are selected based on their market capitalization, trading volume and other criteria, which indicate further improvement of their influence in the Hong Kong capital market.

The Company’s Chairman and CEO, Mr. Liangyou Jiang, stated, “We are very pleased to be included in the HSCI again. It has always been the Company’s goal to be recognized by the market and investors for its continued value gain. At present, the Company is in the best operational period in history, with record high output and profits. Efforts made in terms of management improvement, exploration aimed at increasing mineral resources, safety and environmental protection as well as technical innovations have provided strong support for the performance of the Company to ensure its stable and sustainable operations. In the future, we will advance towards greater goals and continue to create value for our shareholders with quality progress.”
